Alexandria Gazette.

MONDAY EVEN NG. APR. 6, 1908.

Seized the Opportunity. There were bold thieves and bold methods in the earlier days in Holborn.

Here is an example: Said a stout, asthmatic old gentleman to a well dressed stranger who was passing: "A raseff has stolen my hat I tried to overtake him, but-I'm so out of breath-I can't sile another inch." The stranger surveyed the other with critical eye. The victim was puffing and pauting as for dear life. In the pleasantest tone in the world the straner said, "Then I'll be hanged, old boy If I don't have your wig!" he snatched that article from the suf ferer's head and departed like the wind leaving him with head as bare as a babe's.-St. James' Gazette.

Antiquity of the Census.

The idea of the census is almost a old as history itself. King Amasis o Egypt took a census of his people 500 years before Christ. The Athenian solon established a census for the purpose of facilitating taxation. We learn that about 443 B. C. Servius Julius took a census of Rome. During the chaos of the dark ages the census drop ped into oblivion, but was revived again about the beginning of the eighteenth century.

Folding a Coat. Here is 'ne way to fold a man's oat when you want to pack it in a box or a trunk. Lay the coat out per fectly flat, right side up. Spread the sleeves out smoothly, then fold them back to the elbow until the bottoms of the cuffs are even with the collar. Fold the revers back and double the cont over, folding it on the center seam. Smooth out all wrinkles

J. C. MILBURN. Figure This Out For Yourself.

the studio ly inclined. J. Dunk of Baltimere has compiled a rather remarkable arrange ment of the title of a song from "Mile. Modiste"-"I Want What I Want When I Want It." In the following twenty-five squares the words are so arranged that by beginning in the upper left hand corner and reading acro or down, not up, the sentence can be read in 18,421 different ways, according to the arranger. There is no time this week to verify the count, but any one may do so who has leisure. Here

1	Want	What	1	Want
Want	What	1	Want	When
What	1	Want	When	1
1	Want	When	1	Want
Want	When	1	Want	It

A sentence which could be read forward or backward, such as "Raw was I ere I saw war," if it had nine syllables, could be written in the same ar read in 36,842 different ways, or double the above lilustration, as it could be read down from the upper left hand corner or up from the lower right hand corner.-Baltimore News.

The conductor was inclined to seek for sympathy, "Do you see that woman on the left hand side of the car, up near the front?" he asked the thin man on the back platform, "Yes, I see her.

"The one with the dizzy hat?"
"Yes,"

"Well, I think she's tryin' to beat me out of a fare. When I went in to col-lect she never looked around, an' I ain't quite sure that she didn't pay me before, although I'm almost positive about it. She looks to me like a wo man who'd be glad to stir up a fuss. I can pick 'em out as far as I can see 'em. You never spot a woman with a face like that who isn't ready to bluff her way anywhere. I wish to thunder I knew whether she had paid her fare or not."
"I wouldn't worry about it any wife."-Argonaut.

Live and Die on the River. "The river population of Manila is a class by itself," said a traveler. "Not to be outdone by Canton, she has he sampans, known as cascoes and lorchas, supporting 15,000 people within the city limits, where thousands of children are born, grow, live and die on these floating cargo carriers. They never dream of any other world that that which floats about them. These boats are small, but accommodate " family of five to seven. They have a fire pot, a platform and a rice kettle. The cabin or covered portion is very small-in fact, I don't see how the live-and it is a wonder to me that the children don't fall overboard and drown. You will often see a woman sitting at the end of the boat, rowing, with a child strapped on her back, looking for all the world like a little monkey."
